

The IMC Club provided chicken and ham and everyone else kicked in to make up quite a feast. I can assure you that no one went away hungry!

A Prayer of Thanks was given before our festivities began ending in a collective, joyous Amen. It was wonderful seeing the smiles, the Christmas tree with presents piled at the base and hearing the chatter and laughter. The Christmas spirit was alive and well on this Saturday evening!

As the dining wound down, Ronda Cherry walked the crowd letting everyone pull a numbered chip from the bag to initiate the Club Christmas Gift exchange. Dave Stephens (thanks Dave) walked the room with camera in hand to record all the fun.

As in the past, gifts could be 'stolen' by the next person whose number was drawn or they could choose a new unopened gift from under the tree. In keeping with our tradition, the lovely Mrs. Claus (Thank you again, Ginger Zimmerman!) orchestrated the 'White Elephant' event. The 'gift stealing' treachery was equally spread this year between the genders. The third person to claim a gift was the final owner as in past.

(Was the above friendly or over a prize)

Mopar diecasts and wall signs were the most temporarily owned gifts among the men. Beginning with 'aahhs' at Ronda's mom opening the first Saint Nick figure, the little Santa dolls moved from lady to lady as swiftly as the real guy moves on Christmas Eve!

Of course lots of banter and joking followed throughout the proceedings which only added to the laughter and merriment.

Jan Peel, though unable to attend, kindly contributed a small antique gas pump replica that was auctioned to raise money for the club. After some serious back-and-forth bidding, Evan Springer threw out a bid of $20. Rick Zimmerman was not to be denied however and walked away with the prize for $21. Thank you, Jan & Rick!

The craft table had a clever ball jar snow globe that Teresa Kelly learned to make at another Christmas party. Tom Kelly brought a few model drag race cars he assembled and Dave Watt brought an awesome 1:24 scale Hemi complete with blower that he completely machined himself from small chunks of aluminum!

Unbelievable craftsmanship Dave!

Jeff Platzer brought an NMCA event magazine that he discovered had a picture of his new Dodge Coronet. A very nice Christmas surprise!

At the end of the evening, everyone jumped in to help clean up, put away food, wipe down and finally put away and rearrange tables and chairs. A true pitch-in!

Big thank you to all who helped and especially to Steve Wisdom for reserving the facility and initial cleaning and set-up of the room.

This event proved again what a great group of folks and camaraderie we have in the Indy Mopar Club!

Well, it sure doesn't pay to miss a meeting - especially when you have a good friend that puts your name out to do the Profile for the next month. Ran out of time for December - I'll try for January - Jan Peel
