

Other photos show where I repainted it because it had been previously painted the wrong color prior to my father's purchase. I found some original paint down on the cowl. We sanded it, buffed it and had it computer matched for the original color. The rest of the pictures are pretty much when the car was finished. I have a 24 foot Sure Track enclosed trailer that they keep it in and unfortunately, it hasn't been out of it in almost 2 years due to my health issues.

Editor: Wishing you well, Dennis so you can bring this gorgeous car out for viewing again! Thanks for sharing!
